

City of Jacksonville Waterways Commission
Waterways Commissioner

March 2015 to Present

- Appointed to the Jacksonville Waterways Commission March 2015, and reappointed for a second term in 2017
- Evaluate formulas and plans that deal with issues concerning the St. Johns River and its tributaries in order to make recommendations to the City Council
- Motorized Sports Subcommittee Vice Chairperson, 2016
- Adaptive Sports Subcommittee Chairperson, developed a plan for disabled access to the Mandarin Boat Ramp, completed and in use 2017
- Florida Inland Navigation District Funding Grant Subcommittee, 2017. Vice Chairperson, 2016
- Completed Ethics in Public Office Training

Jacksonville Sheriffs Office
Sheriff's Watch (f/k/a Sheriff's Advisory Council)
Jacksonville, Florida
Chairperson, Sector D

- Elected Chairperson for 2016, 2017 & 2018
- Elected Co-chairperson for 2015
- Group helps to provide an information exchange between police and the community
- Helps to educate the public in crime statistics and public safety issues
- Hosts monthly meetings, as well as a quarterly joint meeting, adhering to Robert's Rules

Education

University of North Florida, Jacksonville, Florida
Bachelors Degree of Arts & Sciences
Major of Sociology & Anthropology
Minor of Psychology

Graduated April 2011

References:

Mr. Dick Hulcher, United States Secret Service Agent (Retired)
8348 Bengal Avenue, Jacksonville Florida 32211
(904) 721-3286

Capt. Jim Suber, Waterways Coordinator & Dock Master for the City of Jacksonville
1410 Gator Bowl Blvd., Jacksonville, Florida 32202
(904) 509-0588

Mr. William T. Pyburn, Sr., Fire Fighter, (Retired)
Jacksonville Fire and Rescue Department
2228 Lakeshore Blvd. Jacksonville, FL 32208
(904) 388-6637

Jill D. Haskell
10901 Burnt Mill Road #2306
Jacksonville, Florida 32256

(904) 616-7050

HASKELL,JILL@YAHOO.COM

Summary of Qualifications

Manager of oldest family owned marine business in North East Florida. Proven leader in establishing a complementary relationship between all departments of the company. Negotiates competitive deals with vendors and subcontractors. Personally handles all aspects of inventory, compliance, insurance, payroll and employee benefits. Also possesses the highest degree of integrity and is technically and mechanically knowledgeable. Serves the community in other ways, such as an appointment to the City of Jacksonville Waterways Commission and Chairperson of the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office Sheriff's Watch Program in Zone 2. This includes a position of Public Trust. Most importantly, maintains a volunteer role as a Guardian ad Litem for the 7th Judicial Circuit of Florida as a means of serving the families of North Florida. This includes a position of confidentiality.

Professional Experience

Discount Boats/Haskell Marine, Inc.
Jacksonville, Florida

April 1996 to Present

General Manager

- Manages boat sales, retail & wholesale finance and parts department
- Sells several product lines both retail and wholesale
- Sets-up and manages retail Boat Show booths, as well as assisting show management with the logistics and financial aspects of a large event
- Organizes events to benefit the boating community and promote recreational boating
- Travels extensively throughout the Southeast to transport boats
- Coordinates all mandatory OEM training for franchise requirements
- Responsible for all aspects of payroll processing and benefit programs
- Event Manager for Jacksonville River Rally Poker Run and other charitable boating events, focusing on logistics, finances and ambassador to traveling boaters

Florida Guardian ad Litem Program
Judicial District 7, St. Augustine, Florida

June 2012 to Present

Court Appointed Child Advocate Volunteer

- Represents the best interest of a child involved in the Dependency system
- Advocates, in the court, for the child and makes independent recommendations based upon information gathered
- Makes regular contact and visits with the child, occasionally out of town
- Collects information and interviews all persons involved in the case and creates reports
- Works closely with community partners and placement families to insure that the child is receiving the support needed, both physically and mentally
- Received the Most Valuable Advocate Award for 2012
- Trained in areas such as Mental Health First Aide, Report Writing, Child Abuse, Domestic Violence, confidentiality, and how to navigate the Judicial and Dependency systems