

JaMario Stills

2018-731

(917) 680-7626, (904)322-7672

jfstills@gmail.com

EDUCATION

May 2007

The Juilliard School
Bachelor of Fine Arts in Theatre

New York, NY

EXPERIENCE

Jacksonville University, Jacksonville FL

Theater Adjunct, August 2017 to December 2017

- Collaborate with faculty and staff to ensure University standards and expectations
- Create syllabi designed for introductory Acting 1 course
- Create evaluation tools to monitor the progress of Acting 1 students
- Implement and develop acting techniques to be shared in end for semester performance

The Performers Academy, Jacksonville FL

Director of Development, July 2015 to 2017

- Create programs by collaborating with local partners bridging the arts with community.
- Monitor and evaluate all fundraising activities to ensure that the fundraising goals are being achieved
- Prepare and submit grant applications to generate funds for the organization
- Arts as therapy initiative curriculum design

Oceanway Middle School, Jacksonville FL

Drama Teacher, Sept. 2013 to Sept. 2015

- Create academic curriculum aligned with Duval County School Board standards
- Design classes catered to artistic performance and educational enrichment
- Create social and individual awareness through artistic collaboration

ASTEP (Artist Striving To End Poverty), Homestead, FL, Bronxville, NY & Port Elizabeth, South Africa

Camp Director, June 2004 to Present

- Teach and empower underserved youth through the arts
- Create a drama curriculum and performance pieces catering to various demographics of students and their communities
- Develop marketing strategies for camp initiatives
- Formed relationships with local organizations and funders

The DreamYard Project, New York NY

Teaching Artist, Sept. 2007 to June. 2009

- Associate Director of Bronx Acting Ensemble
- Co-teaching with ELA and Social Studies teacher
- Incorporating artistic elements into academic curriculum