

Huson Gilberstadt, M.D., CPE, FACEP

Huson Gilberstadt, M.D. is the Chief Clinical Officer for the Ascension Florida market. In this position, Dr. Gilberstadt serves alongside the Chief Operating Officer and System Chief Nursing Officer of Clinically Integrated Systems of Care. Together, they will oversee the development of regional clinically integrated systems of care for the Ascension Florida market.

Previously, Dr. Gilberstadt was in the dual role of Chief Clinical Officer for St. Vincent's HealthCare and President of St. Vincent's Riverside. Dr. Gilberstadt has also previously served as the Chief Medical Officer of our Acute Care division. Before that, he was a physician advisor at our three hospitals and also worked for Emergency Medical Specialists of Jacksonville.

Dr. Gilberstadt grew up in Jacksonville and was born at St. Vincent's, as were his father and his three sons. He graduated from Ed White High School and then attended the University of Georgia. He received his medical degree from the Medical College of Georgia. He is board certified in emergency medicine and is a Fellow of the American College of Emergency Medicine.

In his spare time, Dr. Gilberstadt enjoys alligator trapping, hunting, fishing and diving. He has been married to his wife Lisa for six years. Together they have seven sons.
